

Indonesian Foundation

Course Objectives:

Listening: Students should be able to recognize letters and spell words based on phonics (dictation), to understand simple verbal instructions, to comprehend sentences and short texts.

Speaking: Students should be able to read aloud letters, words, to greet, to perform basic conversations, and to present their projects.

Reading: Students should be able to read words with up to 5 syllables, read and comprehend short sentences up to the standard speed requirement.

Writing: Students should be able to write words and transform ideas into short sentences and texts with the correct spelling and sentence structures.

Texts:

None

Skills:

Semester 1

- Greetings
- Self introduction
- Numbers
- Time and date
- Question words
- Body parts
- Colors and shapes
- Vocabulary connected to the topics and skills

Semester 2

- Frequency
- Comparison
- Prepositions
- Group classifier
- Directions
- Indicating differences and similarities
- Following instructions to create
- Vocabulary connected to the topics and skills

Assessment

External	Internal	Weighting
Nil	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Topic tests and oral tests • Projects • Classwork • Homework 	50 20 20 10
		100